IFRS Foundation publishes 2014 Annual Report

The IFRS Foundation has today published its Annual Report for the year ended 31 December 2014.

Focusing on the theme of Financial reporting standards for the world economy, the Annual Report for 2014 incorporates the Foundation's newly developed mission statement as well as reports from the Chair of the IFRS Foundation Monitoring Board, Masamichi Kono; the Chair of the Trustees of the IFRS Foundation, Michel Prada; and the Chair of the International Accounting Standards Board, Hans Hoogervorst, among others.

The Annual Report also sets out the organisation's strategic priorities for 2015-2017, broken down into four strategic goals:

- Develop a single set of high quality, globally enforceable accounting standards
- Pursue goal of global adoption of IFRS
- Support consistent application and implementation of IFRS
- Ensure continued independence, stability and accountability of the IFRS Foundation

About the IFRS Foundation

The IFRS Foundation is the oversight body of the International Accounting Standards Board (IASB). The IFRS Foundation, through the IASB, is committed to developing, in the public interest, a single set of high quality, global accounting standards that require transparent and comparable information in general purpose financial statements.

The Trustees of the IFRS Foundation promote the work of the IASB and the rigorous application of IFRS but are not involved in any technical matters relating to the Standards. This responsibility rests solely with the IASB.
