IASB issues amendments to the IFRS for SMEs

On 21 May the International Accounting Standards Board (IASB) issued limited amendments to the IFRS for SMEs.

When the IFRS for SMEs was issued, the IASB stated that it planned to undertake an initial comprehensive review of the Standard after two years of use by SMEs to consider whether there was a need for any amendments.

Specifically, the IASB said it would consider whether to amend the IFRS for SMEs to address any implementation issues identified and also whether to consider any changes made to IFRS since the IFRS for SMEs was issued.

The IASB decided to commence its initial comprehensive review in 2012, based on its view that sufficient jurisdictions had adopted the IFRS for SMEs to provide broad insight into the implementation experience.

Today, out of the 140 jurisdiction profiles posted on our website so far, 72 jurisdictions permit or require the IFRS for SMEs and an additional 14 are currently considering plans to adopt it.

After consulting widely with constituents, the IASB concluded that the IFRS for SMEs required little change. However, some areas were identified where targeted improvements could be made. The most significant changes, which relate to transactions commonly encountered by SMEs, are:

- permitting SMEs to revalue property, plant and equipment; and
- aligning the main recognition and measurement requirements for deferred income tax with IFRS.

Most of the amendments clarify existing requirements or add supporting guidance, instead of changing the underlying requirements in the IFRS for SMEs. Consequently, for most SMEs and users of their financial statements, the amendments are expected to improve understanding of the existing requirements, without having a significant effect on an SMEs' financial reporting practices and financial statements.

Entities reporting using the IFRS for SMEs are required to apply the amendments for annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2017. Earlier application is permitted provided all amendments are applied at the same time.
